

I would like the no call list to remain intact as is. It is not fair to the citizens of this state to have their dinner time and private time interrupted incessantly by annoying telemarketers. If I am interested in their product or banking at their facility I would contact them myself.